With a half-century history of medical student activism, is the OLDEST AND LARGEST association of physicians-in-training in the United States. With a membership of more than 62,000 medical students, premedical students, interns, residents and practicing physicians from across the country, AMSA continues its commitment to improving medical training and the nation's health.

When you join AMSA, you become part of a vital force of future physicians who believe that patients and health professionals are partners in the management of health care and that access to high-quality health care is a right and not a privilege. At AMSA, activism is a way of life. Student idealism is transformed into meaningful public service, innovation and institutional change.

What can AMSA offer you?

~The opportunity to attend excellent regional and national AMSA conventions (National Convention: March 10-14, 2010 Disneyland, Anaheim, CA)

~Access to hundreds of leadership opportunities, innovative curriculum, health policy internships, fellowships, international health opportunities and resources

~AMSA's Global Health Committee provides many ways for medical students to get involved in fighting global HIV/AIDS and advocating for other global health issues.

~ The opportunity to meet with and convince legislatures of your platform at the state and federal level.

~Attend and plan a healthcare rally at the State capitol

~Make a difference in Malawi by coordinating AMSA's Nothing But Nets Basketball tournament

AMSA offers its members unprecedented leadership training, great benefits, a wonderful magazine, opportunities to do community service and get involved, and much more.
