

Osteopathic Honor Society

Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine

What is Sigma Sigma Phi?

Sigma Sigma Phi is an honorary Osteopathic Service Fraternity. Its objectives and purposes are: (1) to further the Science of Osteopathic Medicine and its standards of practice, (2) to improve the scholastic standing and promote a higher degree of fellowship among its students, (3) to bring about a closer relationship and understanding between the student body and the officials and members of the faculties of our colleges, and (4) to foster allegiance to the American Osteopathic Association and to perpetuate these principles and the teachings through the maintenance and development of this organization.

We are an honor society dedicated to serving each other and our community!!!

How do I get involved?

Applications to join our organization will be distributed during the Fall semester. Acceptance will be based on academic, community service, and personal achievements.
