Who We Are:

The APSA strives to be student physician-scientists’ voice for improving educational opportunities, advancing patient-oriented research, and advocating for the future of translational medicine.

Goals of APSA:

- To provide opportunities for research, mentorship, community building, and mutual support of osteopathic medical students interested in research.
- To aid in career development information for osteopathic students who wish to pursue research-related careers.

Who Should Join?

Any medical students interested in participating in research.
