The goal of HMS is to promote the knowledge of evidence-based functional medicine, providing an integrative approach to patient care, as well as resources for educating patients about nutrition, exercise, and other lifestyle choices to help prevent disease.